Mrs. George H. Lynch of the East Big Social Event of the Season Under Auspices of Catholic Woman's Club-Gathering of Over a Thousand and a Most Successful Affair Resulted-Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shannon Lead Grand March.

> With an attendance of over 1,000, the Charity ball of 1910 under the ausples of the Catholic Woman's club, which was held at the Armory on Wednesday evening, was one of the big social events of the geason and proved a most successful affair in every particular. The club had arranged with the Third company for the use of the decorations, electric light scheme and boxes, so that there was a gaily decdecorations, electric light scheme and boxes, so that there was a gaily decorated and lighted hall which greeted the large gathering. Every seat in the large drill shed was taken, and all the available space in the gallery and underneath was occupied by those standing. This resulted despite the fact that there were three rows of seats the entire length of the hall in front of the boxes on the south side.
> From 8 to 9 o'clock Miller's full orchestra furnished delightful music, rendering the following programme in a particularly fine manner, the cornet solo by A. W. Jarvis being particularly well done:

Overture

During the concert hour the occupants of the boxes were arriving, and all were filled when the hour for the grand march arrived. The march lasted a half hour and was one of the best seen in the Armory. After encircling the hall and doing a spiral through the center, they marched down the hall, doubling in rank each time until there were eight couples abreast. Instead of stopping at this point, they proceeded to reverse, and returned to the double file in which they started. The march
